BEDWETTING

repeated night after night . . . after night . . . until you do something about it. Pacific Research International . . . the largest organization of its kind in the world . . . has helped solve the problem of chronic bedwetting for tens of thousands for over 18 years. Proof? Walter C. Alvarez, M.D., Professor Emeritus of the Mayo Clinic, recommends our educational program . . . and it has been fully researched and recognized by Joseph G. Molner, M.D., Master of Public Health. We can help your child, too, provided bedwetting is not caused by organic defect or disease. End the pattern of bedwetting in your home . . . mail coupon for full information . . . without charge.

Dickard Ratterly
Ex. President
Ratary Inc.

Folks, face it! Rats have been maligned throughout man's history. Treated like rodents, rats have only one hero to look up to, and he's a common mouse. Mickey Mouse (a token mouse!) Rats are actually friendly, good-natured, and good to eat!

Did you know the U.S. Quartermaster commissioned a survey that revealed 42 different societies in which people eat rat ("Good to Eat" Marvin Harris, 1985, Simon a Schuster). Rat really is the other white meat. Each year the government wastes millions of rats by exterminating them with chemicals like Warfarin. Science labs daily pitch 22,000 rats into incinerators like throwing the baby out with the acid bath.

You can help change a lot by eating high protein/low fat rat. Rats unlike cattle take up little room to grow therefore they aren't as harmful to the environment as cattle (i.e. Rainforest and prairie damage). In recent studies, rat has been shown to stop meat hunger in people of industrialized nations. Manuel Noriega has even worked out an early release program for himself by developing a Rat food group plan for third world countries(take a look on page 11).

So now that you are convinced Rats should be included as the fifth major food group . . . join the cause. Get a subscription to Rat Fancy, eat Rat, and be a part of America's fastest growing hobby, rat husbandry.

Dickard Ratterly

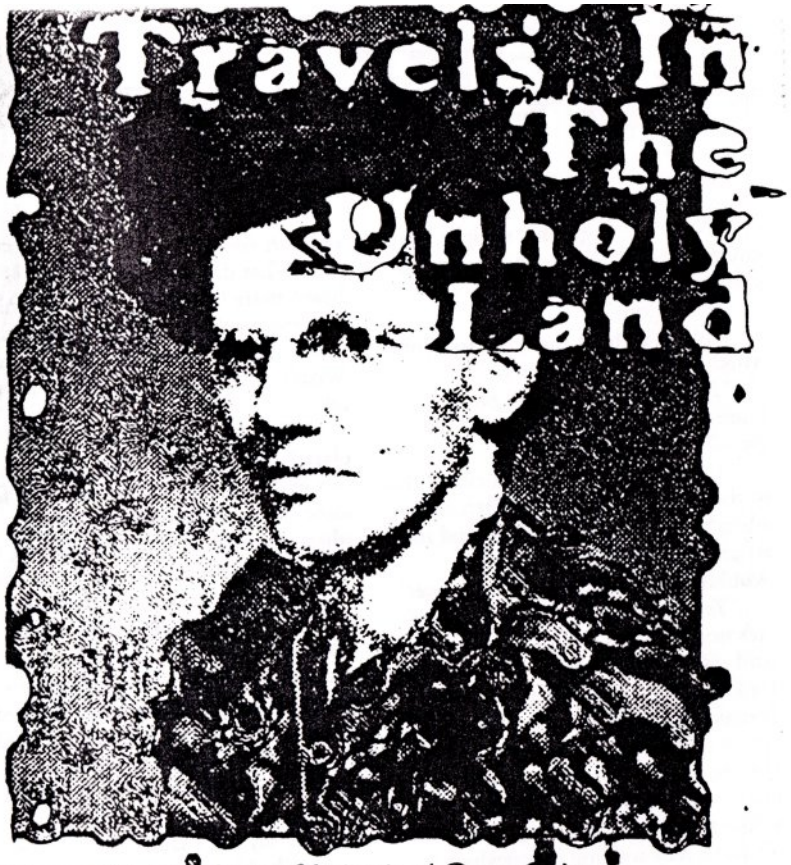
Travels In The Unholy Land



Queen of the Holy Rosary Mediatrix of Peace Shrine

BY JERALD TANAGER

While on a tour of holy shrines of Wisconsin (House on the Rock/World's Largest Loon Sculpture) I made a find that would leave most eschatologists chewing the whole book of Leviticus right out of their Bibles. Only 239 miles from Chicago, the MARY ANN VAN HOOF GROTTO sits waiting for you. Better known as the Queen of the have ideas, direct from the BVM.

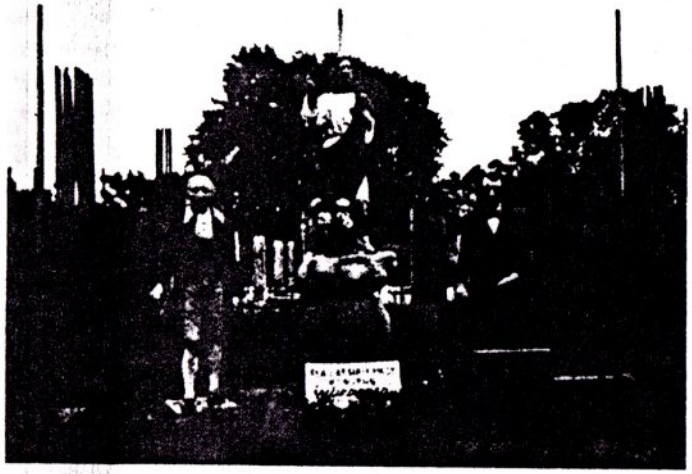
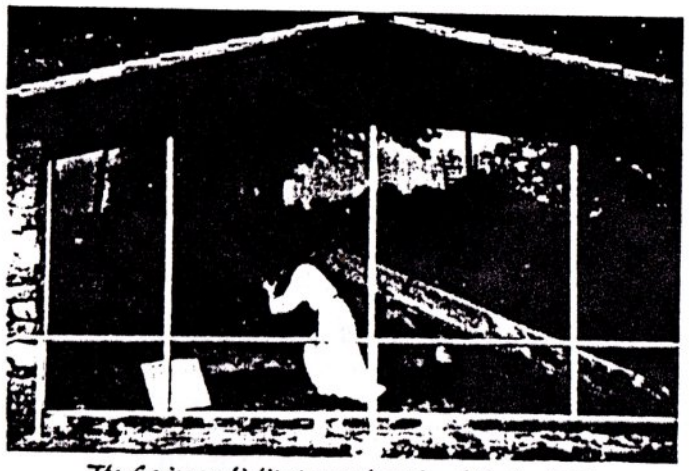
If you think I'm having my 'lil laugh at the expense of a pathetic group of autocephalous catholics, you might be right. But if you read the Shrine Beacon, the bimonthly newsletter put out by these duds, you'd laugh too. Mrs. Van Hoof has been dead 10 years, yet amazingly she still has things to say. Maybe in the beginning Van Hoof professed Mariolatry, today she preaches the dangers of the Tri-Lateral Commission, the New World Order, tunnels under the U.S., men with weird names in the U.N., the AT&T Universal Card, Internet, and the no. 999. Recently the Beacon printed that the BVM has explained that the shootings of J.F.K. and Bobby were directly linked to the rise of "the darkie jungle men" egged on by the "Red Zionist Jews." This couldn't be the Catholic Church my close friends grew up with, and left.

The Other Holy Trinity: Jesus, George, and Abe



It isn't. I should have known the Right Roman Catholic Church doesn't have anything to do with these smoldering bigots, when we were departing our tour of the shrine. In the crammed giftshop, the yammering sales lady, Lela, tried to force me to buy a $15 video. When I proclaimed I was among the working poor, she said take it for free. Lela also threw in some Van Hoof pocket photos and a poster depicting Christ standing in a

Baby Jesus of Prague



The Savior workin' it at an early version of the Lord's Gym huge pile of bloody baby corpses, too. I said I'd show the videotape to some Jesuit friends of mine. Lela cringed at the words, calling Jesuits reprobates who defile our youngsters. As we left, Lela said"Oh please tell the believers to come and be touched by the Celestials."

As of this writing, there is still question as to whether the Vatican recognizes this Shrine. Some sources even say the Vatican has condemned the Beacon.

So I tell you, go or write to:
Shrine Beacon
For My God & My Country, Inc.
W5703 Shrine Road
Necedah, WI 54646

Ask to be on the Shrine Beacon mailing list and you heard about the Shrine through a friend. Also great gifts and post cards may be ordered through their informative catalogue of Catholic curios.

AMERICA DOESN'T HAVE A PRAYER WITHOUT YOURS

And for a non-partisan review of the many wonders of Mary Ann Van Hoof, ask for the Clergy Testimonials. If it's non-partisan, I'll bet you my solid brass Vatican II bottle opener!
